When
declarations
are made

Amendment of declarations

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this section commits an offence, and is liable to a fine not exceeding P20 000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

10. (1) The Directorate shall be responsible for —

- (a) promoting and reinforcing integrity and accountability in public office;
- (b) receiving and analysing declarations and verifying any information contained in such declarations;
- (c) issuing of notices to any person to whom this Act applies;
- (d) the safe custody of declarations made in accordance with this Act;
- (e) monitoring the assets and liabilities of any declarant for the purposes of detecting corruption, money laundering or the acquisition of property from proceeds of any other offence;
- (f) identifying persons who fail to submit a declaration;
- (g) detecting false or incomplete declarations; and
- (h) imposing any administrative penalties under section 16.

(2) For purposes of subsection (1), the Director-General may consult with and seek such guidance from government agencies and such other persons as the Directorate considers desirable.

(3) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1), the functions of the Directorate shall be to —

- (a) identify areas of public duty in which significant conflict of interest issues are likely to occur;
- (b) develop guidelines on conflict of interest;
- (c) develop a code of ethics and oversee the enforcement of the code of ethics;
- (d) investigate complaints on any breach or likely breach of this Act or code of ethics;
- (e) work with other entities in the development and promotion of standards and best practices to promote ethical conduct;
- (f) cooperate and collaborate with other entities in the prevention of unethical conduct;
- (g) raise public awareness and educate the public on unethical conduct and any other matter within its functions;
- (h) establish and maintain a register of declarations of interests, income, assets and liabilities in such form as may be prescribed;
- (i) establish a public registry of declarations of interest, income, assets and liabilities which shall allow unrestricted access to the following information —
  - (i) list of persons subject to the Act who submitted declaration on time,
  - (ii) list of persons who have received a notice under section 10 (1) (c) and have not complied with the notice, and
  - (iii) list of persons subject to this Act who have been subjected to penalties under sections 16 and 17;

- (j) remove from the register, the name of any person who has made a declaration under this Act upon the Act ceasing to apply to the person;
- (k) advise, on its own initiative any person on any matter within its functions; and
- (l) enforce compliance with this Act.

(5) The public register established under subsection (3) (i) shall be kept and maintained at the office of the Directorate and shall be open for inspection during office hours to any member of the public upon payment of such fee as may be prescribed.

11. (1) The Director-General may, in the performance of his or her functions under this Act —

Powers of Director-General

- (a) conduct an inquiry on its own initiative in relation to any unethical conduct including false or incomplete declarations;
- (b) institute an inquiry into alleged or suspected non-compliance with this Act;
- (c) require any person in writing to produce within a specified time, any information, document or answer any questions which the Director-General considers necessary relating to any declaration made by any person;
- (d) require any person who has made a declaration to amend, within 30 days, any declaration that is procedurally or substantively defective; and
- (e) perform such other acts as are reasonably necessary or required.

(2) Any person who fails to provide any information or answer any questions or willfully provides any false information or makes any false statement in answer to a question under subsection (1) (c), commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P30 000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

12. (1) The Directorate shall review conflicts of interest declarations to determine if the interests declared by the declarant are compatible with the exercise of the declarant's functions, in accordance with the guidelines referred to under section 10 (3) (b).

Review conflict of interest
declarations

(2) When the review of the conflicts of interest declarations provides indications of a potential or actual conflict of interest, or of actual or potential violations of the guidelines, the Directorate shall notify the declarant and the relevant authority in which that declarant performs his or her functions.

Verification procedures

13. (1) The Directorate shall verify a declaration to determine any significant and unjustified changes in the interests, income, assets and liabilities of the declarant, his or her spouse and children under the age of 18 years in order to determine —

- (a) the truthfulness of the information declared;
- (b) the origin of the properties declared; and
- (c) whether the change in the interests, income, assets and liabilities of the declarant, his or her spouse and children under the age of 18 years, in relation to the most recent declaration of interests, income, assets and liabilities, is consistent with their legitimate incomes.

(2) Verification procedures under subsection (1) may be initiated upon complaints from private individuals.

(3) Verification procedures under subsection (1) may include the verification of undeclared properties which the Directorate has sufficient grounds to believe are under the control of a person subject to this Act and the Directorate may investigate the origin of the assets with which their owners have effected the acquisition.

(4) When the verification procedures under subsection (1) provide indications sufficient —

- (a) to raise doubts about the legitimate origin of the change in the interests, income, assets and liabilities of a declarant, his or her spouse and children under the age of 18 years; or
- (b) to presume that there are undeclared properties under the control of a declarant, his or her spouse and children under the age of 18 years, the Directorate may require the declarant to provide such explanations as it deems pertinent and such evidence as it deems necessary to substantiate those explanations.

(5) The Directorate shall verify the explanations given by a declarant, his or her spouse and children under the age of 18 years and, if they are not satisfactory, or when the declarant, his or her spouse and children under the age of 18 years have opted not to provide the information, the Directorate shall refer the matter to the relevant authority, which shall initiate the appropriate action.

Referral of information to investigatory authorities

14. Where the Directorate, on the basis of its analysis of declarations and verification of information received by it, has reasonable grounds to suspect that the information would be relevant to —

- (a) the functions of any investigatory authority; or
- (b) any investigation being conducted by any investigatory authority, the Directorate shall disclose the information to that investigatory authority.

Prohibition of unauthorised disclosure of information

15. (1) Any person to whom a declaration is made shall observe and preserve the confidentiality of all information contained in such a declaration and such confidentiality shall subsist even after the termination of his or her term of office or mandate.

(2) Any person referred to in subsection (1), and any other person to whom the confidential information is revealed through the performance of his or her duties, shall not disclose the information to any other person unless he or she is required to do so in terms of any written law or by an order of a court of law.

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this section commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P500 000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding nine years, or to both.

16. (1) A person subject to this Act who has not filed his or her declaration by the end of the prescribed period shall be issued with a notice in writing.

Administrative penalties

(2) A person subject to this Act who, after having received a notice under subsection (1) fails to present the declaration within the prescribed period, shall be liable to a fine of P200 for each day that the person fails to present the declaration.

(3) A person subject to this Act who, 30 days after being given a notice under subsection (1), fails to present the declaration shall be subject —

- (a) in the case of a Member of Parliament, to not sit or vote in the National Assembly until such time as the declaration has been presented;
- (b) in the case of a Former President, any pension or benefit which he or she is entitled to under the Presidents (Pensions and Retirement Benefits) Act shall be suspended for the period that the former President fails to present a declaration; and
- (c) in the case of any other person subject to this Act, to any existing disciplinary procedures of the relevant Act including removal from office or dismissal, where such penalty is applicable.

Cap. 02:03

(4) The penalties under subsections (2) and (3) shall be applied independently of any applicable criminal penalties and where the penalty is a fine it shall be recoverable by action in the High Court at the suit of the Attorney-General.

(5) It shall be the duty of the Directorate to report to the relevant authority any contravention of this section.

17. (1) A person subject to this Act who has not filed their declaration by the end of the period specified under section 16, commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P500 000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years, or to both.

Offences and penalties

(2) A person subject to this Act who —

- (a) makes a declaration which he or she knows or believes to be false or inaccurate;
- (b) omits information or data from the declaration;
- (c) misuses information acquired in the course of his or her duties; or
- (d) acts in a way that allows or might reasonably be thought to allow a conflict to arise between the public duties and private interests of a person subject to this Act or any other person, commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P100 000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

(3) A person accessing a declaration of interests, income, assets and liabilities may not use it for —

- (a) any illegal purpose;
- (b) any commercial purpose, except by the communications and news media for the information of the general public;
- (c) to determine or establish the credit rating of any individual; and
- (d) to solicit, directly or indirectly, money for political, charitable or other purposes.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P50 000 and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

Confidentiality
by Director-General,
etc.

18. (1) The Director-General and other officers of the Directorate shall —

- (a) before they begin to perform any duties under this Act, take an oath of confidentiality in such form as may be prescribed; and
- (b) during and after their relationship with the Directorate, maintain the confidentiality of any confidential information acquired in the discharge of their duties under this Act.

(2) No information from which an individual or body can be identified, which is acquired by the Directorate in the course of carrying out its functions shall be disclosed by the Director-General or other officer of the Directorate except where the disclosure is necessary —

- (a) to enable the Directorate to carry out its functions;
- (b) in the interests of the prevention or detection of any other offence;
- (c) in connection with the discharge of any international obligation to which Botswana is subject; or
- (d) pursuant to an order of court.

(3) Where the Director-General or officer of the Directorate contravenes this section he or she commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P50 000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both.

Confidentiality
by third parties

19. (1) A third party shall not disclose confidential information received from the Directorate.

(2) A third party who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding P1 000 000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

Indemnity of
etc.

20. (1) No matter or thing done or omitted to be done by the Director-General or an officer of the Directorate shall, if the matter or thing is done or omitted to be done bona fide in the course of the operations of the Directorate, render the Director-General or an officer of the Directorate personally liable to an action, claim or demand.

(2) The Director-General or an officer of the Directorate, who receives or makes a report under this Act shall not incur liability for any breach of confidentiality or any disclosure made in compliance with this Act.

21. The Minister may make regulations prescribing anything under this Act which is to be prescribed or which is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for the better carrying out of the objects and purposes of this Act, or to give force and effect to its provisions. Regulations

PASSED by the National Assembly this 8th day of August, 2019.

BARBARA N. DITHAPO,
Clerk of the National Assembly.
